

Mid Atlantic

Spine and Pain Physicians

The most comprehensive pain practice treating spine and pain related disorders

Frank J. E. Falco, M.D.

INTERVENTIONAL PAIN MANAGEMENT

Bio: Dr. Falco is an innovative pioneer and widely-recognized expert in the field of pain medicine and spinal disorders. Quadruple board certified and licensed in several states, he is founder, CEO and a principal of Mid Atlantic Spine and Pain Physicians (MASPP), a multi-specialty, pain management group practice. Dr. Falco is a Clinical Assistant Professor and the Director of Temple University Hospital's Pain Management Fellowship Program, and a residency faculty member at the University of Delaware. He is a Board Member of the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians and a Founding/Board Member of the International Cellular Medicine Society. Additionally, Dr. Falco has authored countless medical articles and book chapters on spinal disorders, lectures nationally and internationally, publishes a chronic pain blog, contributes regularly to a health advice newspaper column, and hosts "Pain Talk," a morning radio program in Delaware.

Education: Temple University School of Medicine

Residency: Temple University Hospital

Fellowship: Georgia Spine and Sports Medicine

Certifications: American Board of Medical Examiners

American Board of PM&R

American Board of Electrodiagnostic Medicine

American Board of Pain Medicine

Professional Distinctions:

Founder, CEO and a Principal, Mid Atlantic Spine and Pain Physicians • Director, Pain Medicine Fellowship, Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, Temple University Hospital • Clinical Assistant Professor, Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, Temple University Hospital • Residency Faculty Member, University of Delaware • Board and Life Member, American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians • President, DE Society of Interventional Pain Physicians • Founding and Board Member, International Cellular Medicine Society • Board Member, Society of Interventional Pain Management Surgery Centers • Editorial Board Member, Spine Universe • 6th Richard W. Stowe Ph.D. Visiting Lectureship, Ohio State University

Professional Affiliations:

American Academy of Pain Medicine • American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation • American Medical Association • American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians • American Society of Regional Anesthesia • Association of American Physiatrists • American Association of Neuromuscular and Electrodiagnostic Medicine • DE Medical Society • DE Society of Interventional Pain Physicians • International Cellular Medicine Society • International Spine Injection Society • PA Medical Society • Physiatric Association of Spine, Sports and Occupational • Society of Interventional Pain Management Surgery Centers • SpineUniverse